PROPOSALS.

NAVY DEPARTMENT,
Bureau of Yards and Docks,
May 19, 1859.

SEALED PROPOSALS for each class separately lettered, endorsed "Proposals for Class No. (name the class) for the navy yard at (name the yard)," will be received at this office until noon on the 20th day of June next, for furnishing and delivering at the several navy yards named the materials and articles embraced in printed schedules, which will be furnished on application, and such many, if so requested, to persons desiring to offer to contract for any or all of the classes named therein, by the commandants of the several navy-yards, for the classes for the yards under their command, or by the navy-yard agent therein, or by the bureau for any or all the yards.

To prevent confusion and mistakes in sealing the offers, no bid should be included in the same envelope for more than one yard in one envelope; and each individual of a firm must sign the bid and contract.

Bidders are hereby cautioned and particularly notified that the schedules will be in the form herein inserted, and be mailed in time to reach the destination before the time expires for receiving the proposals; no bid will be considered which shall be received after the period stated, and no allowance will be made for delays of the mails.

To guard against offers being opened before the time appointed, bidders are required to endorse on the outside of the sealed envelope, and draw a line under the endorsement, thus:

"Proposals for Class No. (name the class) for the Navy-yard at (name the yard.)"

To the Chief of the Bureau of Yards and Docks, Washington, D. C.

Form of Offer.

(Here date the offer.)

I, (here insert the name or names composing the firm, if (name the firm) be a firm, or the name of the State,) hereby offer to furnish under your advertisement dated (date of advertisement,) and subject to all the requirements of the same, and the printed schedule to which it refers, all the articles embraced in Class No. (name the class) for the navy-yard at (name the yard,) according to said schedule, viz: (here paste on the printed class from the schedule the articles and the prices affixed to them and carry out the amount in the columns for dollars and cents, and then add the aggregate amount of the bid for the class,) amounting to (here write the amount in words)

I propose as my agent (here name the agent, if one is required by the schedule) for the supply under the classes miscellaneous, if a non-resident of the place of delivery, and should my offer be accepted, I request the contract may be prepared and forwarded for the signature of (name the agent) for signatures and certificate.

(Here the bidder and each member of the firm sign.)

Form of Guarantee.

The undersigned (name the guarantor) of (name the town) and State of (name the State,) and (name of second guarantor) of (name the town) and State of the above named (name the bidder or bidders) will, if his (or their) offer be accepted, be ready to execute a contract with the United States within five days after the date of notice through the post-office, of the acceptance of his (or their) offer before mentioned. (Signature of guarantors.)

Witness:

I certify that the above named (here name the guarantors) are known to me to be good and responsible guarantors in this case.

(Signature.)

To be signed by the district judge, district attorney, collector, or navy-yard agent, or some person known to the bureau to be responsible.

The schedule will state the times within which articles will be required to be delivered; and where the printed schedule is not used, the periods stated in the schedule for delivery will be deemed to be the articles which may be contracted for must be delivered at such times, in such quantities, at such age and cartage to the place where used within the navy yards, respectively, for which the offer is made as may be directed by the commanding officer thereof; and, all other things being equal, the preference will be given to the manufacture of articles. No article will be received after the expiration of the time specified for delivery, unless specially authorized by the department.

Bids will be provided in the contract, and to be distinctly understood by the bidders, that the quantities of articles and numbers of articles in classes headed "Miscellaneous" are specified as the probable quantity which may be required, as well as to fix the rate for determining the lowest bid; but the contractor is to furnish more or less of the said articles at such rates, and at such times, and in such times, as the bureau or commandant may require; such increase, however, not to exceed one-third of the quantities specified, the requisitions sent through the post office shall be deemed sufficient notice) during the fiscal year, for which the contract is made, and whether the quantities required be more or less shall be determined by the bureau or the commandants of the respective yards, will be paid by the navy-agent at the place of delivery within thirty days after the presentation to him.

It is stipulated in the contract that, if default be made in the delivery of the articles, or any part thereof, the bureau or the commandant may, at the expense and risk of the contractor, and in all respects subject to the inspection, measurement, weight, &c., of the yard where received, and to the entire satisfaction of the commandant of the yard, purchase articles of the same description and of the respective yards for samples, instructions, or particulars, and to the contractor for its fulfilment. The United States reserves the right to reject all the bids for any class, if deemed exorbitant.

All articles must be of the very best quality, to be delivered in good order, and to be taken from vessels and wagons in the case may be, at the expense and risk of the contractor, and in all respects subject to the inspection, measurement, weight, &c., of the yard where received, and to the entire satisfaction of the commandant of the yard.

Bidders are referred to the commandants of the respective yards for samples, instructions, or particulars, and to the contractor for its fulfilment. Other things being equal, preference will be given to articles of American manufacture.

Every offer made under the law of 10th August, 1846, must be accompanied by a written guarantee, in form as the following, signed by two sureties.

Those only whose offers may be accepted will be notified, and the contract will be forwarded to them for signature and execution. Bidders will be required to execute within ten days after its receipt the contract, and return it to the navy-yard by them.

Sureties in the full amount will be required to sign the contract, and their responsibility certified by a United States district judge, United States district attorney, collector, or navy-agent. As additional security, twenty per cent. will be withheld from the amount of the bills until the contract shall have been completed; and eighty per centum of each bill presented for payment by the commandants of the respective yards, will be paid by the navy-agent at the place of delivery within thirty days after its presentation to him.

It is stipulated in the contract that, if default be made in the delivery of the articles, or any part of any or of the articles mentioned in any class bid for in the contract, or any part thereof, at the time and place provided, then, and in that case, the contractor and his sureties will forfeit and pay to the United States a sum in money not exceeding twice the amount of such class, which may be recovered from time to time, according to the laws of Congress in such case provided, approved March 3, 1843.

Class No. 1 to be delivered one fourth part on or before the 15th May, one-fourth part on or before the 20th July, one-fourth part by the 20th September, the remaining one-fourth by the 20 December, 1859.

Class 3, the whole by the 15th May, 1860. The remaining class to be delivered one-fourth part on or before the 1st September next, one-fourth part on or before 1st December next, one-fourth part on or before 1st April, and the remainder on or before the 20th June, 1860, unless earlier required with a notice of twelve days, commencing at each delivery, a due proportion of each article. Class 10 and all following, if additional quantities of any of the articles named may be demanded, they are to be furnished on the terms and conditions of the contract, at the rates bid, within a fortnight upon receiving a notice of fifteen days from the bureau, the commandant or the yard, or navy-agent.

Form of Offer.

I, ——, ——, in the State of ——, hereby agree to furnish and deliver, in the respective navy-yards, all the articles named in the annexed schedule annexed, according to the provisions of the schedules therefor, and in conformity with the specifications of the Bureau of Construction, &c., of the 19th of May, 1859—Should my offer be accepted, I request to be advised of the same, and the contract sent to the navy-agent at ——, or to ——, for signature and certificate.

To the Honorable Judge of Probate for the County of Merrimack:

RESPECTFULLY represents MARY E. EASTMAN of Concord, in said county, Administratrix of the estate of BENJAMIN C. EASTMAN, late of said Concord, deceased, that the personal estate of said deceased is not sufficient to pay the demands against the same; that the said deceased, at the time of his decease, was seized of certain real estate situate in said Concord, containing about twenty square rods, bounded and described as follows: Commencing at the westerly corner of Horace Merrill's house lot on Spring Street, thence northerly about 4 rods to a stake in land of Henry C. Sanborn, thence westerly eight rods on said Sanborn's land to a bank wall, thence southerly by said wall two rods to a bank wall of said Merrill's land, thence on said Merrill's land eight rods to the place of beginning, and that it is subject to the rights of dower and homestead of your petitioner therein; that the same may be more than sufficient to satisfy the rights of dower, but is so situated that a part thereof cannot be sold without injury to the remainder; wherefore she prays that she may have license to sell the reversion of the widow's rights of dower and homestead, and to do all things in the premises agreeable to the statute in such case provided.

MARY E. EASTMAN.

Dated the 24th day of May, A. D. 1859.

STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE—Merrimack, ss.

At a court of probate holden at Concord, in said county, on the fourth Tuesday of May, A. D. 1859—It is ordered by the judge of probate for the foregoing petition, at a court of probate to be holden at Concord, in said county, on the fourth Tuesday of July next, and that the said petitioner give notice to all persons interested, by causing a copy of said petition and this order thereon, to be published three weeks successively in the New Hampshire Patriot and State Gazette, printed at Concord, that they may appear if they think proper, at said time and place, and show cause why the prayer of said petition should not be granted.

By order—ISAAC A. HILL, Register.

A true copy, attest:

To the Honorable Judge of Probate for the county of Merrimack, and State of New Hampshire:

RESPECTFULLY shews, BENJAMIN A. NOYES of Bow, in the county of Merrimack, and State aforesaid, that DAVID C. BOND, MARIA E. BOND and HENRY T. BOND, minor children of THOMAS J. BOND, late of Bow, deceased, the guardian of said minors, is desirous of a license to sell the real estate of said Merrimack; that his said wards are seized and possessed of a certain tract of land situate in said Bow, bounded thus: westerly on the Londonderry turnpike, southerly by land of E. B. Noyes, easterly and northerly by lands of William P. Gould and Joseph C. Merrill, containing about thirty acres, and bounded as set in on a plan of the said Bow, bounded easterly by said turnpike, southerly and westerly by lands of William Dunklee and Mendell Simpson, northerly by lands of David C. Russell and Mendell Simpson, containing about twenty acres, and bounded easterly by said turnpike, southerly by lands of William Dunklee and Mendell Simpson, containing about 4 acres. Said interest being one third of the above described tracts of land, subject to the right of dower of Ann C. Bond, widow of said Thomas J. Bond, that it is necessary and for the support of his said wards and will be conducive to their interest to have the premises sold; wherefore he prays that he may be licensed and authorized to sell the same at public auction, according to the statute in such case made and provided.

BENJAMIN A. NOYES, Guardian.
