

STATE NEWS.

A kid glove manufactory has been established at Concord.

The shipments of apples from Bristol in October were 21,000 bushels.

Charles P. Bowditch of Boston is to erect a $50,000 house at Chocura lake, Tamworth.

Sherman S. Fletcher of Bridgewater will put up 3,000 bottles of horse radish this season.

The capacity of the new pulp and paper mills at Groveton is to be 30 tons of paper per diem.

The new foundry and pattern house at Sullivan Machine Company's plant at Claremont is nearly completed.

David M. Quimby has presented to the Unitarian society in Exeter an upright piano costing $800, as a memorial to his wife.

The Parker & Young manufacturing company, of Lisbon, which was burned out last June, has rebuilt with increased capital.

The Laconia Car Company will build a number of passenger coaches of an improved pattern for the Boston & Maine Railroad.

Lyman Rounsevel of Newport has closed his tannery business, carrying his last load of leather to the depot the day he was 86 years old.

Senator and Mrs. Gallinger and their two sons go to Washington the last of this month. They have taken rooms on Capitol Hill for the Winter.

The ninety-third birthday of Mrs. Samuel Langley, the daughter of a revolutionary soldier, was pleasantly commemorated at her home in South Danbury, a few days ago.

Edward McNab has been pardoned from the state prison by the Governor and Council, after serving thirteen years for a crime of which it is now shown he was innocent.

Walter Bond of Manchester eloped, last week, with Miss Abbe Fuller, and the couple have probably gone to California. He drew $2900 from the bank, $900 belonging to his wife, leaving $100 for her.

Capt. Harris Campbell of Henniker has worked at blacksmithing in that town for sixty-seven years, and was eighty-four years old on Thursday of last week, on which day he shod four horses, "toed" several shoes and sharpened eighteen stone drills.

The Brown Lumber company have a large force of men at work on the extension of the Jefferson railroad at the base of the mountain on the south branch. The rails will be laid in a few days. They expect to get out about five million feet of lumber this Winter.

Several New Hampshire men have formed an association for the establishment of an institute for the cure of the liquor and opium habits by the Keeley treatment. It will be located at North Conway, N. H., at the Artist Falls House estate, comprising 150 acres. The institute will be opened in January.

George D. Burton of New Ipswich has made gratifying progress in electrical forging. By a process perfected in his own establishment he is able to turn out six steel railroad spikes per minute. Mr. Burton also makes auger screws, with an absolutely true spiral, by his electrical process, and he can melt and weld any metal, however hard and refractory. He uses both the constant and interrupted currents.